

Work has recently started to restore the old notice boards in the village. New posts have been put in place, some minor repairs, a thorough sand and repaint needed. Here's hoping they can serve the village for many more year to come.

With thanks to Keith Gristock, Councillor Jamie Cross and Councillor Richard Pearson for their hard work.

